Going to the course – shallow water

An aerial photograph of a waterfront area, likely in Copenhagen, showing modern apartment buildings and a canal. The image is annotated with red arrows and text to indicate a course route. A red arrow points from the top left towards the water, with a white box containing the text "Stay close to land". Another red arrow points from the top left towards the water, with the text "Tømmergraven" written vertically in red. A large green banner with white text "Shallow water – no entry area" is positioned diagonally across the water. A red arrow points from the bottom left towards the water. In the bottom left corner, there is a small inset map showing the location of the area within a larger city context, with labels like "København", "Havnebadet", and "Kongens Lyngby".
